PRIMARY EVIDENCE TRAIL

Source	Page	Evidence Snippet	Selection Basis
nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	2	3.2 Non-Resident Outbound Transfers All outbound cross-border capital remittances initiated by Nexus India FinTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd. to overseas supplier entities for technology licensing software fees are capped at a maximum ceiling of $1,500,000 USD per single transaction assignment, up to a maximum cumulative pool of $5,000,000 USD per fiscal quarter. • Deviations Node: Any transaction structure attempting to bypass this limit via multi-invoice splitting under identical contract identifiers	direct_threshold_rule_match, primary_source_match, ceiling_value_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match
nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	2	3.1 Foreign Direct Investment & Strategic Stakes To optimize global operational footprint, corporate subsidiaries are authorized to acquire capital equity positions in international technology infrastructure providers under the following authorization matrices: • The Automatic Route: Acquisitions where the total capital deployment is less than $10,000,000 USD and the acquired asset represents less than 40% equity in the target entity can be cleared via the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) signature	primary_source_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match

nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	1	1.2 Policy Inheritance Framework Pursuant to corporate governance guidelines, all rules, thresholds, and reporting metrics outlined in this document are immediately inherited by and legally binding upon all corporate subsidiaries, joint ventures, and related promoter entities where Nexus Holdings Global Inc. maintains a equity stake exceeding 26%. • Statutory Compliance Mandate: Subsidiary operations must comply first with localized central banking guidelines (e.g., the Reserve Bank of India for	primary_source_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match
nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	1	1.1 Organizational Lineage Nexus Holdings Global Inc. ("The Parent Company") operates globally through several wholly- owned subsidiaries, including but not limited to: • Nexus India FinTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd. (Operating primarily within the Indian subcontinent) • Nexus Euro Distribution GmbH (Operating within the European Union) • Nexus Tech Logistics Ltd. (A global logistics arm incorporated in Delaware, USA)	primary_source_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match
nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	2	2.2 Prohibited Lending & Credit Exposures No subsidiary of Nexus Holdings Global Inc. shall extend commercial credit loans, operational advances, or trade-financing facilities to any active vendor if an executive director or immediate family member of an executive director of the Parent Company holds an equity stake or promoter share in that vendor entity exceeding 2.5%.	primary_source_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match
nexus_holdings_global_inc.pdf	1	2.1 Vendor Classification and Due Diligence Before any corporate capital can be transferred or escrowed, all prospective commercial vendors must undergo institutional verification overseen by the Operations Risks Committee (ORC). Vendors are grouped based on systemic transactional exposure:	primary_source_match, transaction_fact_match, rule_language_match

AUDIT RATIONALE AND ACTION

The selected rule applies because Internal Policy governs the equity capital remittance involving Nexus India and overseas payment-processing fintech subsidiary for acquisition of 45% equity stake in India.

Deficiency findings

- Transactional Exposure failed: actual value is $12,500,000.00 USD; expected Transaction amount must be less than or equal to $1,500,000.00 USD.
- Foreign Investment Route failed: actual value is acquisition of 45% equity stake; expected Equity, acquisition, FDI, or capital-route transactions should be checked against foreign-investment evidence..

Recommended action: BLOCK_REMITTANCE
